DULLNESS IN LOCAL MARKET AT-TRIBUTED TO POLITICS.

In Lines of Produce Prices Have a Downward Tendency-The Flour Market Shows Activity.

In the local market there seems to be a dull period. Some charge it to the political excitement in the city, as the dullness is more pronounced in the city trade than in the country trade that draws its supplies from Indianoplis. Prices is some lines in powdered, 5.30c; Standard granulated, 5.02c; standard granulated, 5. from Indianoplis. Prices in some lines carry an easier tone. This is noticeable on Commission row and with the produce men, who report trade as rather quiet and prices downward in tendency. There is an ample supply of fruits and vegetables usually handled at this season, and the commercial merchants are anxious to make sales.

Irish potatoes and sweet potatoes are in good supply and are selling much lower than at the corresponding period last year.

The same is true of other classes of vegetables usually handled at this season, and the commercial merchants are anxious to make sales.

There is an ample The same is true of other classes of vegetables. Choice apples are not in large supply and consequently rule firm, but inferior stock is selling low. Wholesale grocers report their trade as good and prices, as a rule, steady and firm. During the month of September the world's visible supply of coffees increased 622,229 bags and the figures are not encouraging for those who are predicting higher prices. Navy beans rule famer, but some are impressed with the belief that they have been pushed up higher than actual conditions warrant and that a reaction soon is not improbable. Still that a reaction soon is not improbable. Still it is generally conceded that there is a shortage in the crops this year. Some of the holders have come to the conclusion that a bird in the hand is worth twe in the bush, profiting by the experience of last winter, and the probabilities are that most holders this season will he satisfied to sell when they can realize a fair margin. The provision market is fairly otive, the range of prices at the present time justifying the use of good products ether than of fresh meats. Receipts of ogs are large and prices practically the same as for some time past. The flour market shows more activity. There is an improved export and Eastern demand. which is affecting the local market more er less. The canned goods market is attracting some attention. DISGUST AND DISCOURAGEMENT MARKS PROCEEDINGS.

Weakness Not Confined to Indusand Railroads Suffered Generally in the Depression.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 .- There was practically no relief to the weakness of to-day's stock market from start to finish. There was an occasional pause in the downward course of prices, which was simply due to a lull in the selling movement, but the usual rebound on short covering was in every case feeble. The last prices were practically the lowest of to-day and the closing was weak. Net declines of 1 to 2 points and upward are quite general throughout the list. To-day's liquidation seemed to be prompted more by a sentiment of disgust and discouragement with the whole situation in the securities New Telephone second 5s.

The extended reports this morning of the testimony elicited yesterday in the hearing of the legal proceedings connected with the shipbuilding company created a profound impression throughout the financial world The details there set forth of the process of corporation promotion, underwriting and stock flotation gave rise to disturbing analogies with a large mass of industrial securities, which have come into the market in the last few years and are now lying there in a practically waterlogged position. The assumptions growing out of yesterday's disclosures were of so grave a character and applied to such important quarters as to unsettle the mind of the financial $4.82.30@$4.82.35 for sixty days' bills; posted public over the most conservative convictions, $4.83 and $4.86\204.87; commercial tions. The gravity of one received its recognition in the usual course of the public statement, issued later in the day, formally disclaiming the implications of the incident by J. P. Morgan & Co. Following the widespread disturbance of sentiment in the market caused by the reduction of the dividend on United States Steel, the industrial stocks Bags, 25c per ton extra, ground floor or dumped had a bad day of it. United States Steel common sold down to its previous low recin cellar; 50c per ton extra, second floor or carord, 14%, and the preferred stock more severely handled, with a decline of | 41% pfgs. Yesterday's argument that the reduction of the dividend on the common increases the security for the dividend on the pre-ferred lost its force in the face of computations that the decrease in net earnings was at a rate greater than the reduction in the dividend disbursement. Amalgamated Copper was the fellow sufferer most acutely affected. The stock fell to a new low record at 35% in the late dealings, after some show of support had been accorded above 36. It was argued that the reaction in the iron and steel market must extend to copper, while the relative price of Amalgamated and United States Steel on a similar dividend level was again used to the disadvantage of the former stock. Brokers whose operations yesterday on the buying side in various stocks were attributed to inside supporting orders, turned sellers to-day, with corresponding effect on the general sentiment. The weakness was by no means confined to the industrials, and the railroads suffered quite generally in the general depression which weighed the market. Specific reasons were entirely lacking to account for the selling pressure all through the day. The bond market behaved better than stocks and showed some signs of investment absorp-

UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. .-Cattle-Receipts, 700; shipments, 100. Probably the most that can be said of the cattle market to-day is that there was an easier outlet for all fat stock than yesterday. Salesmen generally were not inclined to quote any additional strength in the market, but finally admitted that strong prices were realized for the best selections. The variety of cattle represented was about the same as on preceding days this week, and there were very few or none in their class for which salesmen could expect to get an outside figure. No doubt, therefore, the reduced supplies have cut more figure in getting the market in better shape the past few days than any improvement in quality has. There is still rather a limited request for cattle from outside sources, and on that account it is not advisable to increase the marketing to any great extent, but there is probably no doubt that more strictly choice kinds could be sold at prices as good as those now prevailing. Hogs-Receipts, 4,500; shipments, 1,500. Notwithstanding the receipts of hogs continue no larger than normal there is a continued downally expected that there will be a reduction made at this time in the year, but no doubt the pres ing inquiry are certainly not productive of confidence and part of the uneasiness manifested to-day may have found that as its inand while the change has been severe it has by comparison been less than in larger centers. Tuesday morning a sale of hogs was made at $6.80, yesterday the top was $6.05 and to-day the thized with the other securities. This weak-ness in steel may be explained perhaps by extreme price is $5.90, representing a loss of 40c in forty-eight hours. This amount, however the general drift of the market, but on its | does not cover the loss in the general market, face it seems to be a cause rather than an effect.

for there is no doubt that hogs sold to-day at $5.75 such as brought $6.25 on Tuesday. In their present positions values are probably the lowest Market Dominated by Heavy Selling. erally believed that the bottom has not been reached. From the 6th to the 11th of October last year, a period of five days, the extreme price was reduced 55c and then there was a rally of 25c, but subsequently the top price was reduced $1.05 from the beginning of the month.

After receiving early advices from other places this morning the market opened with an exceedingly weak feeling among buyers and sales-men were preparing for another joit. There was no doubt that prices would be lower, but there was some question as to the extent of the de cline. Consequently the early bids were a little irregular and, of course, sales were the same, but, as soon as the market settled, which was early in the day, sales were making an average of fully 15c lower thon yesterday. Of course, there were a few transactions that did not repremore, there being some transactions right around 25c lower than yesterday. All buyers were in the field and while there was no urgent competition there was a steady outlet for the offerings at the decline and the morning's receipts were exhausted. Later reports from other places effected the trade here and some of the hogs that came in on late trains sold possible 5c lower than the firmness did not yield, and the higher than the firmness did not yield, and the higher than the firmness did not yield, and the higher than the firmness did not yield, and the higher than the firmness did not yield, and the higher than the firmness did not yield, and the higher than the firmness did not yield. timent. In fact, there was some com-plaint to-day that the quality was not as good as yesterday. On that account buyers were in-clined to want some concessions in prices, but salesmen refused to make any reduction, and, many stocks are cheap, absurdly so, this although there was not much opposition from local butchers, nearly steady prices were finally realized. In fact, a few buyers claimed that the market to-day was firm, quality being considered. A good clearance was made and the close was steady. Several lambs sold as high as $5.25, and other sales ranged from $3 to $5. The sheep market appears to have been stronger than lambs, a few sales being reported at $3.50 and culls to decent sheep sold from $2 to $3. Quota-
